ROMAN WOLVES

CUCINA ROMANA

Romulus and Remus were twin brothers, sons of a human mother and the God of War, Mars. After their birth, the King ordered them killed, afraid they would grow up and take his throne. They were placed in a basket and put into the Tiber River, left to die. Their basket washed ashore where a female wolf found and nursed them, until a shepherd and his wife took them in. When they came of age, they overthrew the King who had ordered their deaths and set out to build a city along the Tiber River where their basket had washed ashore, and they called it Rome.
